Interior Of The Month!

Jenny & Simon

Jenny and Simon were searching for a kitchen that would look just like it had always belonged in her home. Something classic and characterful but with a few more modern touches. From the impressive fridge-freezer to the beautiful, polished gold handles, this timeless Surrey kitchen feels effortlessly stylish and inviting.

Our designer, Paul, took the time to get to know our client's tastes and lifestyle. He worked closely with Jenny and Simon to tailor their design to their needs. The Kensington shaker doors in Mussel pair perfectly with the charming Karndean warm oak flooring, bringing a fresh yet cosy feel to the room. Gorgeous tongue and groove panelling ties the kitchen and dining spaces together seamlessly. The stunning Granite Leather worktop is one of the couple's favourite features.

A modern twist on a traditional unit, our brand new Burlington Riviera unit with brass accessories is something special! Perfection!

SCANDI VIBES WITH A MODERN TWIST

This new addition to the showroom is the perfect blend of both 'scandi' and modern vibes. The wooden top and circular sink bring in a natural element, whilst the matte handleless unit and door keep things super modern.

CLASSIC YET TRADITIONAL

With deep drawers, great for storing all of your everyday essentials, this new dark matt grey vanity unit is the perfect romantic addition to your bathroom. This collection from Roca also has matching mirror options which are perfect for creating one cohesive trend in the room.

SLEEK BUT BOLD NAVY STATEMENT

Thinking of adding colour to your bathroom? Navy is a great option as not only is it bold but also timeless and not too overpowering. This new navy piece in our showroom is coupled with stainless steel finishings to play on its modern and contemporary look.

The Best Colours To Paint Your Bathroom!

Introducing paint can bring a whole new lease of life to the bathroom. However, unless confident in selecting the ideal choice, the prospect of picking up a paintbrush can prove somewhat daunting. Whether you are picking the colour for your brand-new renovation or simply wanting to refresh your existing room, ensuring you choose a colour you'll enjoy for years to come is extremely important.

Factors such as natural lighting, the aesthetic of the rest of your home and bathroom furniture will also come into play when deciding on the perfect colour to paint your bathroom. If brass features are in your bathroom, you may want to opt for warm-toned colours. Whereas if you have stainless steel, cooler tones will work better.

Hues Of Blue

As with each colour, blue can vary immensely on a colour chart. Create a nautical vibe by incorporating accents of powder blue or cerulean, bringing a sense of calm to the space, and conjuring up vacation vibes. Equally, arctic blue can create a relaxing spa feel to your bathroom. On the opposite end of the spectrum, deep navy can add drama and is a perfect statement to transform any bathroom.

Grey All The Way...

Cool grey and off-white can add warmth and sophistication to any room. However, if opting to be slightly bold, graphite is a great choice. With sleek white bathroom furniture and stylish accessories, this minimal colour palette will allow you to create a simple and timeless room.

Go Green

Consider pistachio combined with playful, colourful accessories or mint for a fresh transformation which can cool a naturally sunny bathroom. A more experimental approach may be emerald complemented by striking brass accessories and tropical prints to inject an adventurous style into any room.

Keep It Natural

Unquestionably, neutrals can effectively capture a timeless appeal alongside elements of crisp and calm sophistication. Adding a deep sandy tone

Neutrals can effectively capture a timeless appeal alongside crisp and calm sophistication. Adding a deep sandy tone will allow your white bathroom suite to stand out whilst keeping the colour palette simple. Complement this colour scheme with beach vibe accessories such as shells and landscape prints to achieve an overall put-together look. If you want a more subtle approach to the natural look, off-white or Egyptian cotton can add a slight warmth to the walls without being too overbearing.

Hopefully, these pointers will help when you in deciding the right bathroom colour for you!
