Super space-saving storage for your kitchen.

Interior Of The Month!

Mr & Mrs Patel

"There's no home like the Patel's home" - and wow, is this true! The Patel's aim for their new room was to have somewhere they could share their love of cooking with friends and family. Adding an island complete with a hob means that Mr & Mrs Patel are able to socialise with their guests while cooking. The five-burner Miele gas hob is Mr Patel's pride and joy; it has made catering for big groups so easy!

Mixing grey and white over both the cabinets and worktops creates a lovely two-tone effect. Mrs Patel is loving all of the storage and has even dedicated a drawer to her coffee pods! We're so pleased we have been able to create the room of their dreams and can't wait to hear about all their fabulous dinner parties!

“The Patels were such fun to work with, there really is no one else like them! I was speechless when I was finally able to see the finished product once the kitchen was installed - utter wow factor!” - Lucy, Designer

Ways to inject colour into your kitchen.

Colour can be a great addition to your kitchen; whether you wish to be daring with vibrant cabinetry or decide to inject a small touch of character through your textiles and accessories. Injecting colour into your kitchen has the power to change the whole mood and feel of your room.

While classically styled neutral kitchens can look fresh and airy, it can be nice to mix things up by adding colour to a room. Adding colour doesn't have to be shockingly bright and bold, it can be as subtle as adding a green plant to a grey room, or patterned cushions to your dining chairs. Let us talk you through how both small and big changes can be made!

Can't Decide? Think outside the box

If you want to add colour but are apprehensive about making a big change, adding colourful soft furnishings could be the way forward. Try blinds with a pop of colour or curtains with an eye-catching print. This will create a lovely focal point for your room, as well as provide a starting point for your colour scheme. You can then further enhance your design with colourful cushions, tea towels, pots and utensils, or even some fun artwork.

Just Add Paint!

Paint doesn't always have to mean painting a feature wall; applying it in smaller, more unusual places is just as effective. Painting sections of the wall behind feature shelves or adding abstract shapes are also great options.

Current on-trend colours include deep shades of blue and earthy green tones.

Decorative Splashbacks

Changing your splashback is a great option if you want to make a statement. This could either be a standalone pop of colour or a feature hue to contrast against the cabinetry. For a more subtle look, you could keep the splashback behind the hob. For a bolder choice, try running it along the whole length of the worktop!

Kitchen Doors & Units

Colourful kitchens are just as popular as muted, monochromatic designs. There is a wide range of options available on the market to adhere to your style.

The two-toned look has definitely surged in popularity over the past couple of years. This is a great approach to injecting colour; choosing two complementary colours can help you achieve a sophisticated and stand out kitchen design. Navy and grey are a perfect match for a cooler toned look, while a light pink paired with brass finishing touches will create an elegant, warm space.

Our designers have a wealth of knowledge and are always keeping up with the latest trends! If you'd like to speak with us about how you can transform your own kitchen, just give us a call!

In The Know...

Trend Alert - Brass Bathroom Accents

Brass is one of the biggest home design material trends to re-emerge in recent years.

Brass adds instant warmth to your room and can be the perfect contrast for minimalistic concrete bathrooms. It is also a great addition to a marble bathroom as it gives it a beautiful elegant edge.

Adding small injections of brass with taps, handles or wall lights can be the perfect way to inject this trend into your scheme.

If colour is a bit more up your street, navy blue, pinks or greens are a great pairing with brass, and will instantly give you that 'on trend' look.
